REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS

For President:
JAMES A. GARFIELD, OF OHIO.

For Vice-President:
CHESTER A. ARTHUR,
OF NEW YORK.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUSES.

The Republican voters of the City of Bangor are hereby requested to meet at the usual places for caucusing, on Friday Evening, June 12th, 1880,
at 7:30 o'clock, to elect three delegates from each ward to attend the Republican State Convention, to be held at Bangor, June 15th, 1880, to elect delegates to the National Convention, to be held at Chicago, June 22nd, 1880.

Wade Hampton is a Blaine nomination.

Plaided will find the Tabulators a heavy load to carry.

Five hundred Knights Templar of the Pacific Coast will attend the triennial grand encampment, at Chicago in August.

Another burglary has been committed in the old palace at Stuttgart. A large sum was stolen from the cabinet of the Minister of Domains.

W. W. Bailey, a farmer, residing near Combs, Mass., was killed by a cow named Spenser, Saturday evening. Spenser ran headlong from Bailey out of which grew the difficulty.

The man who is curious to see how the world could get along without him, and out of which a cable needle like a millpond and then withdrawing it and looking at the hole.

Solon Chase's train was unexpectedly stopped at Fort Huron, Michigan, on its way to Chicago because one of his luggage refused to answer the questions of a customs official.

In his autobiography, General Plaided fails to mention the crowing act of his life—his magnificent donation to Memorial Hall, Waterville. Was the future of the chronicle this deed of princely generosity accidental?

W. H. Simpson, Esq., of the Republican Journal, Belfast, has just added to his already quite complete printing establishment, a new and very handsome improved printing press from the celebrated foundry of R. Hoe & Co., New York. The press is driven by a new steam engine, manufactured at Belfast. While these improvements betoken prosperity, they also show that the Journal typographically will continue to compare with the excellency of the editorial management.

We are indebted to N. A. Luce, State Superintendent of Schools, for a copy of his annual report for the year 1879. In conclusion Mr. Luce says that, "We need the whole community to be alive to the necessity of having better schools for the education of children; that we should have larger schools by abolishing the consolidation of school districts; that the schools should have better educated and trained teachers, with long terms of service in the same school; and that the schools should have better supervision, parental as well as official."

The Deputy Marshal's bill, as passed by the House, has been amended so as to provide that the Deputy Marshals shall be appointed by the Circuit Court of the United States for the District in which such Marshals are to perform their duties in each year, and are authorized to open their respective Courts at any time for that purpose, and in cases they are not open, they shall be opened on days prior to registration; and there be one, if not, ten days prior to election, and the officers so appointed shall be equal in numbers from the different political parties, and well known citizens of good moral character.

A private letter to the Bangor Journal from a veteran in Penobscot county, says: "In reading the Massachusetts papers, I got the impression that they are inclined to account of the third-term movement as a scheme to elect a candidate. You can, with truth, inform them that the rising over the defeat of the third-term movement, and the disappointment at the result. The Convention made an excellent choice which gives universal satisfaction in this vicinity, and we shall be glad to see the temper and Garfield elected in September. It is going to be a tough fight, but we are equal to the occasion. If we could have Blaine, Garfield we wanted."

Warden Morse, of the Maine State Prison, has recently been in this city and vicinity, effecting sales of carriages manufactured in the Prison workshops. Although the boot and shoe business is depressed there, the most of the carriages are devoted to the manufacture of carriages which have a ready sale. The sales of the last month aggregated $10,000, mostly to parties in the State. Prices are asked for the work, as it is not intended to bring convict labor into unfair competition with the free labor of our skilled mechanics. Warden Morse himself, somewhat crippled, at times, for available funds with which to purchase carriages. There are at present 213 prisoners at the institution, 180 of whom are employed in the shop, the remainder being waiters or on the pick list.

Isaac T. Hobson, of Wisconsin, is being linked up as a fusion candidate for Representative to Congress from the Third District. Just the man for the candidacy, and it is possible for him to go further. He went to Augusta last winter and took his seat at the Senatorial board as Senator from Lincoln county, when he knew that the people had chosen Andrew R. G. Smith to that position by some two hundred majority. Hobson knew there had been a usurpation of returns from the town of Somerville, and that Andrew R. G. Smith had been deliberately counted out of the office to which he was elected. A man who would deliberately steal a seat in the legislature, and hold the same until being driven out by the strong arm of the law, is composed of just the material out of which to manufacture a fusion Representative to Congress. Let Hobson by all means take his place with Fogg.
